Libations of Love

ROSEWOOD MAYAKOBA'S NEWEST BAR IS A LOVE LETTER TO ITS INIMITABLE LOCALE, CULTURE AND PEOPLE. TAKE A LOOK INSIDE.

BY PAIGE MASTRANDREA

Rosewood Mayakoba serves as a little slice of paradise on the Yucatán Peninsula, offering enticingly exotic luxury that allows you to escape your day-to-day to a world of magic and wonder. With a bevy of exquisite food and beverage offerings, the property continues to excel in the country's booming hospitality scene and most recently opened its newest gem: Zapote Bar.

Paying tribute to its heritage and the indigenous name-of-the-tree, Zapote Bar comes with a reputation that precedes itself. Developed in collaboration with the Mexico City-based Licería Limantour—which is ranked on "The World's 50 Best Bars" for five consecutive years—consumers can expect the extraordinary, where creative mixology thrives by incorporating its unique Mayan tools, ingredients and techniques that capture the heart of the property's location.

Offering day-to-night service with zesty food and beverage offerings, Zapote Bar enhances the gastronomic journey on-property for guests to come and imbibe in its offerings. With a full cocktail program designed and overseen by bar director Joshua Monaghan and Rosewood Mayakoba's culinary director Juan Pablo Loza, the team behind the nighttime destination bring their expertise to ensure the experience is memorable and unique. In a setting that truly evokes the spirit and heart of the region brimming with fresh and colorful produce juxtaposed against warm wood furnishings and clean cement flooring—all set against views of the property's breathtaking backdrop—guests will ease into relaxation and indulgence upon entry.

Zapote is just one of the Mexican property's crown jewels. From wellness experiences to a high-end fitness center, Zen-like spa (Sense, A Rosewood Spa), an impressive golf course and oceanfront and lagoon views with scenic guest suites, Rosewood Mayakoba blends culture, heritage and luxury into one irresistible setting.
